AREA OF SPECIALIZATION IN RESEARCH

---

I identify myself as a leading middle grades expert who is expanding and deepening inquiry in middle grades education as well as impacting the local secondary education community and beyond by conducting educational research that investigates ways to foster responsive secondary school experiences for young adolescent learners (ages 10-15). My systematic program of research revolves around three interconnected strands:

1. responsive secondary school environments;
2. responsive middle grades teacher preparation;
3. responsive teaching practices.

UNIVERSITY-LEVEL TEACHING & MENTORING

University of South Florida

EDG 7695—Problems of Practice

- Semester: Spring 2019
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: Theory and research in curriculum development, including historical perspectives on curriculum movements, comparative global curriculum issues, and curriculum theories and models in use. Special attention given to innovations that succeed or fail.

ESE 7346—Collegiate Teaching in Secondary Education

- Semester: Fall 2012, Fall 2014
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: The purpose of this graduate course is to help prepare doctoral-level students for successful collegiate teaching. Emphasis is placed on the state of collegiate teaching and learning, understanding how people learn, facilitating student learning, becoming a reflective practitioner, and developing the mindset and skills necessary to teach and reach today's undergraduate student.

SSE 6932—Care and Personalization in Secondary Education (SSE 6932)

- Semester: Fall 2011
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: The purpose of this graduate course is to explore the practical, theoretical, philosophical and ethical aspects of fostering care and personalization within secondary schools. Emphasis is placed on understanding and fulfilling students' basic and developmental needs along with the need to foster developmentally responsive, caring, and personalized secondary classrooms and school environments.

SSE 6932—Middle School Trends and Issues

- Semester: Fall 2010
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: The purpose of this graduate course is to explore the current trends and issues in middle level education. As part of the course, students will create and submit manuscripts for consideration to state/national middle school journals and/or submit presentation proposals to state/national middle school conferences.

ESE 5344—Classroom Management for a Diverse School & Society

- Semesters: Spring (2), Summer, Fall (2) 2008; Spring, Summer (2) 2009; Spring, Summer, Fall 2010; Spring, Summer, Fall 2011; Spring, Summer, Fall 2012; Spring, Summer 2013, Fall 2020, Summer 2022, Spring 2023
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: The purpose of this graduate course is to explore the practical, theoretical, philosophical and ethical aspects of school and society, the education profession, and secondary schools with particular focus on classroom management, school violence, school safety, educational law, and other critical social issues.

- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: The purpose of this graduate course is to explore the connection between adolescent development, learning theories, and classroom practices. Emphasis is placed on diverse secondary education populations (ESOL, special education, multicultural, at-risk, etc.) in preparation for planning responsive standards-based instruction.

MAE 4941—Middle School Mathematics Education Internship I & Seminar

- Semesters: Fall 2020, Fall 2021
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: Candidates will spend each day of the semester in an assigned school implementing acquired knowledge from Practicum I and II, with increased responsibility for planning instruction and assessing student learning and will attend internship seminars.

MAE 4942—Middle School Mathematics Education Internship II & Seminar

- Semesters: Spring 2021, Spring 2022
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: Candidates will spend each day of the semester in an assigned school implementing acquired knowledge from Residency in fall with increased responsibility for planning instruction and assessing student learning and will attend internship seminars.

LAE 4936 & SSE 4936—Senior Seminar

- Semesters: Fall 2015
- Role: Instructor
- Course Description: This course provides interns with a venue to interact with each other and create a professional community of challenge and support during internship semester.

ESE 4322—Classroom Management for a Diverse School & Society

- Semesters: Spring (2), Summer, Fall (2) 2008; Spring, Summer (2) 2009; Spring, Summer, Fall 2010; Spring, Summer, Fall 2011; Spring, Summer, Fall 2012; Spring 2014, Spring 2015, Spring 2016, Spring 2017, Spring 2021, Spring 2022, Spring 2023
