

TEACHING WITH TEAMS: ESSENTIALS

JOINING TEAMS MEETINGS

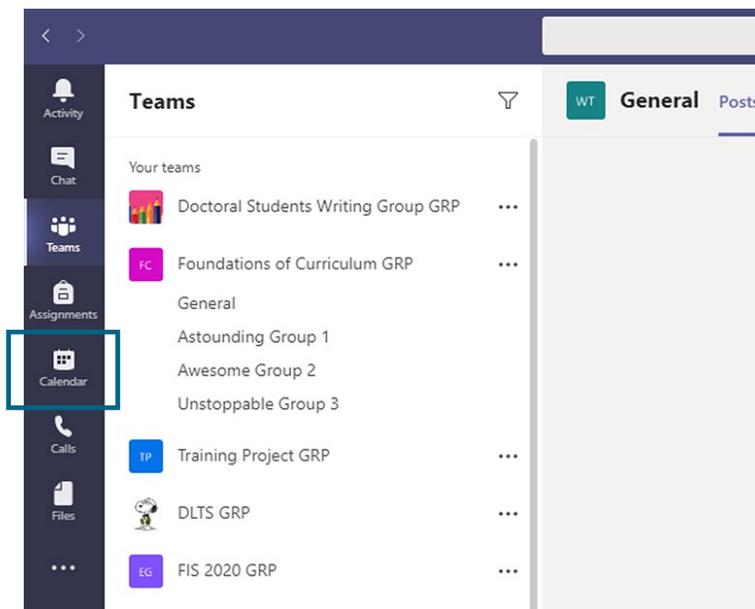

You can join Microsoft Teams sessions from Teams, Outlook, and links in Canvas.

Joining a meeting in Teams

The steps in this section work for both the Microsoft Teams client and the Microsoft Teams Web Interface.

01

After opening the Microsoft Teams client or the Web Interface, select the Calendar icon on the left side of the screen.

02

Once the Calendar interface appears, find your meeting and click on the event to open a window with a Join button. Select it to enter the meeting.

03

After selecting Join, a settings page will appear which will allow you to choose your video and audio options, such as turning audio and webcam on or off and choosing a webcam background image. Finally, clicking the Join now button will take you to your meeting.

▶ Joining a meeting in Outlook

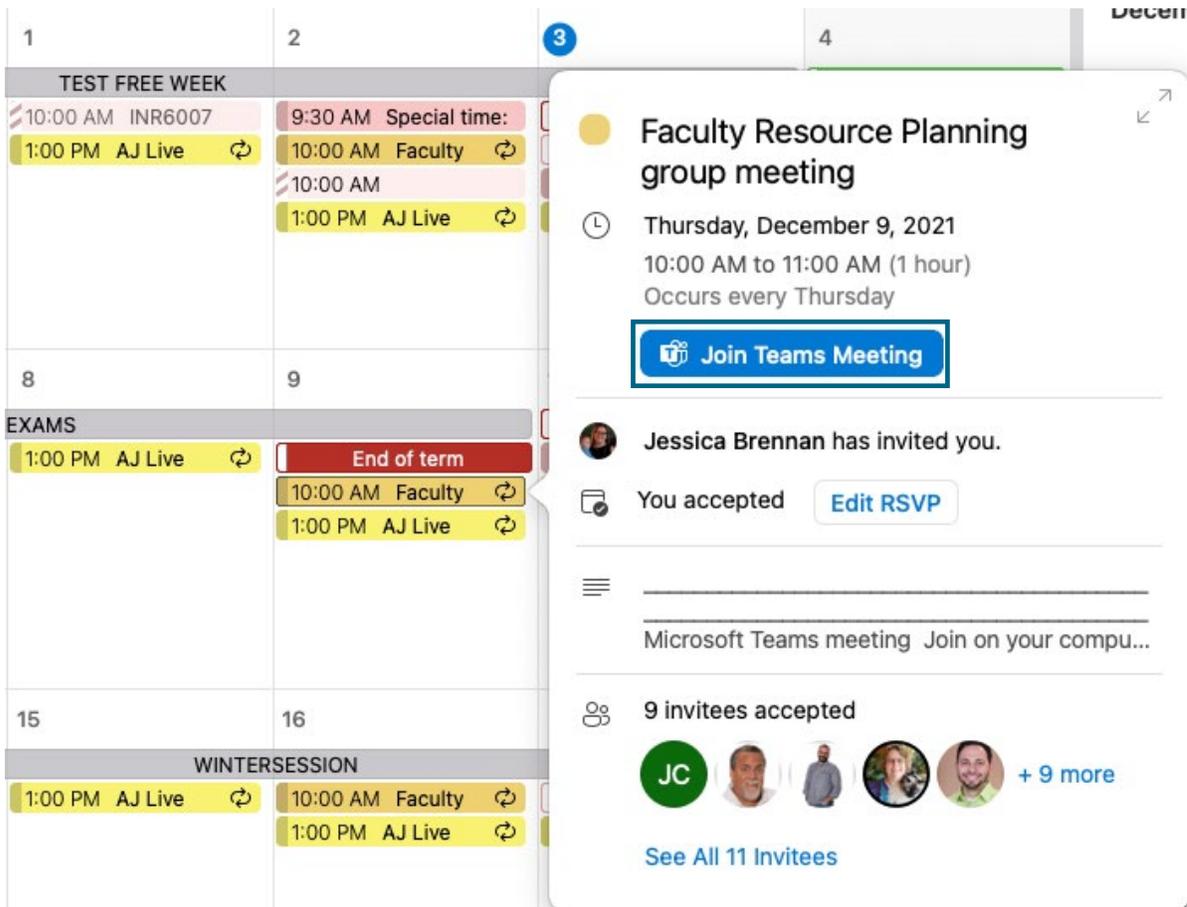

01

After opening Microsoft Outlook, select the Calendar icon on the lower left-hand side of the screen.

02

Once the Calendar interface appears, select your meeting and then select Join Teams Meeting in the popup that appears.

03 A settings page will appear which will allow you to choose your video and audio options, such as turning audio and webcam on or off and choosing a webcam background image. Finally, clicking the Join now button will take you to your meeting.

Joining a Meeting in the Canvas LMS

01 If a Teams meeting is linked within an announcement or on a Canvas page, such links will be self-explanatory.

Our live online session will be conducted on Dec. 3 @ 10:30 am. To prepare for the session, review our agenda in Box and be ready to discuss.

02

However, if the Microsoft Teams Meetings link in the left navigation panel of your Canvas course has been activated, you can join the meeting by selecting the link and choosing Join on one of the meetings listed.

The screenshot shows the Canvas interface for a course titled "Presentation Demo Course". The left navigation menu includes "Home", "Announcements", "Syllabus", "Modules", "Grades", "People", "Microsoft Teams meetings", and "Microsoft Teams classes". The "Microsoft Teams meetings" link is highlighted with a blue box. The main content area is titled "Microsoft Teams Meetings" and features a "+ New meeting" button. Below this, a calendar view for "Friday, December 3 • Today" shows a meeting card for "Office Hours" at 10:30 AM, lasting 2 hours, with the text "Arleen Janz invited you". The "Join" button on this meeting card is highlighted with a blue box. A green arrow points from this "Join" button to a larger, zoomed-in view of the same meeting card below, where the "Join" button is again highlighted with a blue box.

Joining a Meeting from a Class Team in Canvas

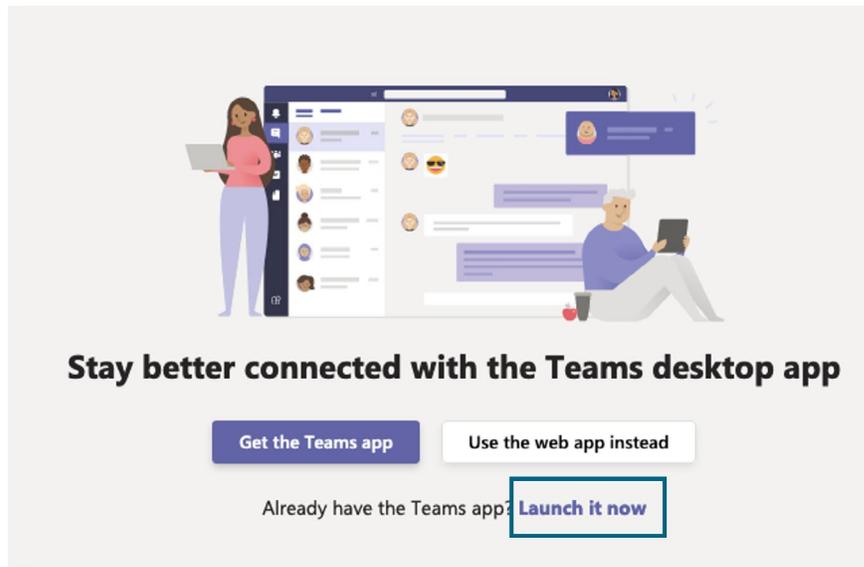

01

If a meeting was scheduled from your Class Team, you can access your Team from the MS Teams classes link in Canvas. Click the square for your course.

02

You may have to sign in, then choose how to connect. The desktop app is recommended for the best performance.

03

This will take you to the General channel of your Course Team, where you will see a meeting link in the chat area. Yours may look slightly different and show a Join button above the meeting announcement. Click the meeting link or the Join button.

04

After clicking Join, a settings page will appear which will allow you to turn your webcam on or off, and where you can mute or unmute your microphone. Finally, clicking the Join now button will take you to your meeting.

Attending your Meeting

Once you have successfully entered the meeting, the command tray will give you additional functionality to interact with others during the meeting. Below is a description of what each icon does.

The Show Participants button will open up the Participants pane so you can view who is currently attending the meeting, and who was invited but is not present.

The Show Conversation button will open the chat pane in the meeting where participants can communicate through text and can upload files to the meeting for all participants to have access to.

The Raise Your Hand button will inform the room and the speaker that you have a question or would like to respond with a comment.

The More Actions button will open a pane that will give you more options to the Meeting Notes, Device Settings, Phone Audio, and to switch the video of the participants to Gallery or Together Mode.

The Webcam button will turn your webcam on or off during the meeting.

The Mute/Unmute button will allow you to mute and unmute your microphone.

The Share Content button will allow you to share your screen or applications you may have open for the rest of the participants to view. You can access the Whiteboard feature.

The Leave button will allow you to leave the meeting.
