Mr. Colton was a Shareholder and Senior Member of Cozen O'Connor as well as Co-Chairman of Cozen O'Connor's Insolvency, Bankruptcy and Restructuring Group prior to his retirement.

Mr. Colton's practice involved a broad range of corporate and litigation matters with special emphasis in international and domestic insolvency, creditors' rights, bankruptcy, restructuring, reorganization, nonprofit and tax-exempt organization, aircraft financing and aviation matters. He actively represented corporate debtors, secured and unsecured creditors' committees, foreign representatives, landlords, equipment lessors and investors in large Chapter 11 cases throughout the United States, including debtor-in-possession lenders. He represented purchasers of entire businesses or business segments of troubled or failing enterprises both in and out of Chapter 11, institutional mortgagees in major commercial real estate insolvencies and restructurings as well as LBO's both in and out of Chapter 11. Mr. Colton's practice also included the counseling of lenders on lender liability matters and equitable subordination issues.

September,
1995

Mr. Colton practiced law with the Philadelphia-based law firm of Dechert Price & Rhoads (now Dechert LLP) where he became partner in 1978 and from that time to his joining Cozen O'Connor he was Chairman of its Bankruptcy Department.
