<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Accreditation</td>
<td>Recognition by an accrediting organization or agency that a college meets certain acceptable standards in its education programs, services, and facilities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Articulation</td>
<td>The systematic coordination providing the means by which students proceed toward their educational objectives, in a manner that is as rapid and student-friendly as their circumstances permit, from grade level to grade level, from elementary to middle to high school, to and through postsecondary education, and when transferring from one educational institution or program to another.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Articulation Agreement</td>
<td>A written commitment to a program designed to provide students with a nonduplicative sequence of progressive achievement leading to degrees or certificates.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Articulation Coordinating Committee (ACC)</td>
<td>Created in Section 1007.01(3), Florida Statutes, the ACC is an advisory body to the Higher Education Coordinating Council (HECC), the State Board of Education, and the Board of Governors for articulation issues.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“C”</td>
<td>A suffix to a prefix and number indicating that a course is a combination of lecture and laboratory offered as a single course entity. (See also “L”)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Century</td>
<td>A major content category within a prefix. Up to ten centuries can be accommodated in a prefix, and up to 100 courses can be accommodated in a century. (See also Decade, Prefix)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>College Credit</td>
<td>The type of credit assigned to courses or course-equivalent learning that is part of an organized and specified college degree and/or program. One college credit is based on the learning expected from the equivalent of 15 fifty-minute periods of classroom instruction, per State Board of Education Rule/Board of Governors Guideline 6A-10.033(1)(a), FAC.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Inventory Report</td>
<td>A report to generate a listing of all institution courses within a specified discipline or prefix including statewide taxonomic and course detail information. The Microsoft Excel version of this report allows users to manipulate the data according to their desired output.</td>
